

we urge you to delay the vote on the rule change on media consolidation set for Monday. We ask you to hold a series of public meetings and hearings to discuss this very important issue.